One of Italy's most influential and renowned political cartoonists, Giorgio Forattini, author of 26 books and winner of the Hemingway award for journalism has created an exclusive selection of wine labels bearing his trademark cartoon style for Castello di Sorci wine, featured throughout Grappa's wine list.

For 15 years his cartoons were featured on the front page of Italy's leading daily newspaper, La Repubblica. Forattini now contributes regularly to another of Italy's leading daily's, La Stampa.

The Castello di Sorci cartoons are based upon the legends surrounding the castle. Standing in the same location since the 13th century, there are numerous legends to be told, perhaps the most beguiling of which is associated with the "ghost" wine, Fantasma, designed around the tale of one time resident, Baldaccio d'Anghiari who, after his violent demise in 1441 has been seen wandering the rooms of the castle in search of justice.

Ask your server for a bottle today, and discover the taste that drew Italy's most famous political cartoonist to Castello di Sorci.
